

GIFTS IN WILL

Ideal for:	All supporters who wish to continue to support charities they care about.
How does it work?	Include a gift in a Will for the Jewish Foundation on behalf of a specific school(s) indicating a specific donation amount or a residual percentage of the estate. Can also consider donating specific assets in your Will, such as a gift of publicly traded securities.
Benefits:	Whether it is a set dollar amount or a percentage of the estate, a bequest in a Will can allow donors to make a difference for generations to come. A tax receipt is issued for the gift which may be claimed in the year of death, the preceding year, or by the estate in the first five years after death. Receive preferential tax treatment for gifts of specific assets such as publicly traded securities.

GIFT OF A LIFE INSURANCE POLICY

Ideal for:	Donors who wish to make a significant donation in the future which will support charities they care about in perpetuity.
How does it work?	Gift of a New Policy: Designate the Jewish Foundation on behalf of a specific school(s) as owner and beneficiary of a new life insurance policy and continue funding the premiums. Gift of an Existing Policy: Transfer ownership of an existing life insurance policy to the Jewish Foundation on behalf of a specific school(s) and continue funding the premiums. Beneficiary Gift: Designate the Jewish Foundation on behalf of a specific school(s) as beneficiary of a new or existing life insurance policy and continue funding the premiums.
Benefits:	Gift of a New Policy: Receive tax receipts for all premium payments. Gift of an Existing Policy: Receive a tax receipt for the Fair Market Value of the policy at the time of the gift and for all ongoing premium payments. Beneficiary Gift: The estate will receive a charitable donation receipt for the face value of the insurance proceeds on death.

RRSPS, RRIFS, AND TFSAS

Ideal for:	Donors without dependents or those whose dependents are otherwise fully financially secure. Donors who anticipate substantial taxes upon death. Donors who don't need some or all of their registered plans to fund their retirement.
How does it work?	Designate the Jewish Foundation on behalf of a specific school(s) as beneficiary of the RRSP, RRIF or TFSA; or sign an RRSP, RRIF or TFSA beneficiary designation form naming the Jewish Foundation on behalf of day school as beneficiary.
Benefits:	Estate will receive a tax receipt to offset any taxes owing at death.
